

Charlotte Mason: 20 Principles for the Modern Home

By Christine Gayfer

OCHEC Conference 2014

My Favourite Charlotte Mason Sites:

- Ambleside Online: Free Online curriculum and a plethora of reading and inspiration on the Charlotte Mason philosophy <http://www.amblesideonline.org/>
- Simply Charlotte Mason: Free curriculum guides and some wonderful resources, free and paid. This site inspires me with lots of doable ideas. <http://simplycharlottesmason.com/>
- Charlotte Mason Help: Free curriculum and lots of inspiring goodies <http://www.charlottesmasonhelp.com/>

Other Resources:

- Sonya Schaeffer's free ebooklets <http://simplycharlottesmason.com/store/product-category/product-free-resources/>
- Sketch Tuesday – (Check out her blog, too, which is great.): <http://harmonyfinearts.org/sketch-tuesday/>
- Free Watercolour Lessons: <http://www.watercolorpainting.com/watercolor-tutorials.htm>
- Charlotte Mason's Original Homeschooling Series, Free Online:
 - <http://www.amblesideonline.org/CM/toc.html>
 - Or, in modern English: <http://www.amblesideonline.org/CMM/ModernEnglish.html>
- My old, sadly-neglected blog has many great articles on how we do a Charlotte Mason style education in our home: <http://thereallifehome.wordpress.com/>
- Managers of Their Homes – good book on creating a detailed, personalized schedule. Has online software available, too: <http://www.titus2.com/managers-of-their-homes.html>

Articles:

- "The Dangers of Safe Reading" by Liz Cottrill: <http://www.charlottesmasoninstitute.org/the-danger-of-safe-reading-by-liz-cottrill/>
- "The Baby is the Lesson": <http://www.lovetolearn.net/most-important-homeschool-lesson>
- "Incorporating Read-Alouds When it Seems Almost Impossible": <http://thereallifehome.wordpress.com/2009/04/09/incorporating-read-alouds-when-it-seems-almost-impossible/>